A letter from our Council President

Dear Community Friend,

2022 was an exciting year packed with many changes & transformations here at your Community Foundation of White County. After 18 years of leadership, Leslie Wineland Goss finished her tenure as Executive Director Emeritus before retiring in December. Leslie helped our foundation move forward & positioned us to be able to be a facilitator to help so many organizations in our community. Luckily for us, we had a great candidate waiting in the wings, Lucy Dold! Lucy has done a remarkable job and will continue to be a great leader for your Community Foundation. Committed to continue growing in the field, Lucy graduated in 2022 from the John M. Mutz Philanthropic Leadership Institute. Congratulations, Lucy! We also were able to bring in Ben Getz as Executive Assistant, and he is already contributing so much to the organization. We also can't forget our CEO David Lasater who lends his invaluable support and expertise from the Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette, our affiliate.

CFWC's mission remains to strengthen and transform White County. By participating in Lilly Endowment, Inc.'s GIFT VII initiative, we were able to dive deeper into the needs of our community and the experiences of those living here. We hosted Rural Community Solutions to conduct community conversations last spring and compiled what we learned with county-specific data. Through this discovery, we identified and proactively awarded two grants to address immediate needs and continue to use this valuable data to guide our mission.

We continue supporting leadership initiatives in the community and thank our many partners who know that when we work together, we work better. Initiatives like Leadership White County strengthen and challenge our community's leaders to think more broadly. Our Women Giving Together Fund offers opportunity for people to get engaged in the grantmaking process, while making a difference collectively. Wabash Heartland Innovative Network awarded a Regional Cultivation Grant for us to launch a new youth philanthropy council in White County, an exciting program designed to develop the next generation of philanthropic leaders!

In 2022, CFWC had 10 new funds established, received over $1.3M in gifts, and we awarded over $356,000 in grants. All of this is possible because our generous donors, partners, and volunteers work tirelessly to strengthen and transform White County. Thank you for all that you do.

With great respect,

David Winings, President
CFWC Governing Council

Our mission: to strengthen and transform our community by fostering charitable giving, philanthropic aspirations, and leadership.

Community Conversations

As a part of Lilly Endowment Inc.'s GIFT VII Planning Grant, your Community Foundation commissioned Rural Community Solutions to engage in a series of community conversations with residents of White County in order to ascertain the aspirations, concerns, and actions the citizens feel are important to the future well-being and growth of White County. This information was compiled with other county-specific data to build a comprehensive report, available in the foundation office.

In response to immediate needs that were uncovered, CFWC awarded two proactive grants to improve access to mental health services and other social services needs for our most vulnerable populations. We continue to use this data to guide our mission.

Frank & Kim Spillers of Rural Community Solutions facilitating conversations with the Brookston community. Conversations were held in Monticello, Brookston, Wolcott, and Monon.

Your Community Foundation of White County continues to participate in and benefit from initiatives being developed within the Wabash Heartland Innovative Network (WHIN).

WHIN's mission is to develop our 10-county region as a large-scale, living laboratory for education and scientific research related to Internet of Things (IoT) technologies.

Funded by a $38.9M grant from Lilly Endowment, Inc., two primary focus areas are Digital Agriculture and Next-Generation Manufacturing.

A Regional Cultivation Fund,

WHIN's third component, is focused on education, creation of vital communities, and connectivity. With a grant from the Cultivation Fund, CFWC is launching its very first Youth Philanthropy Council. With representatives from all four White County high schools, this group of philanthropic leaders will be charged with awarding grants to support their school systems.

Women Giving Together Fund

The Women Giving Together Fund was established in 2006 by a small, but mighty, group of women that strongly believed in the power of collective philanthropy. Annually, over 100 women join this movement with donations big and small to support area agencies that serve White County women and children. Since its inception, over $148,000 in grants have been awarded from the WGT Fund, supporting initiatives across the county.

The Fund's annual fundraising luncheon welcomed guests to the Brandywine Convention Center in June to celebrate women in philanthropy and to honor 2022's WGT grant recipients. Being the first time that this luncheon could be held since 2019, grant recipients from 2020 and 2021 were honored as well, making this year's luncheon bigger and better than ever. Although the mission of the fund was still being carried out during those two long years despite the loss of the annual luncheons, it is with great excitement that we get to see the Women Giving Together (in person) again!

Leadership White County

Members of the '22 cohort smile as they learn from community leaders about public safety.

The ninth cohort of Leadership White County graduated this year after building new skills, growing networks, and learning more about the White County community. This group partnered with Monticello Fire Department to host its first Sharon Hartwell Safety Day, an opportunity for families to get their children's car seats inspected by a certified car seat technician.

Grantmaking

Some funds managed by CFWC are designated to benefit a specific organization or area of interest; others engage their donors in the grantmaking process; still others, such as the unrestricted (discretionary) funds listed help CFWC address ever-emerging needs and opportunities that inspire and improve White County's quality of life.

Donations to these and all CFWC funds are welcomed at any time and in any amount.

We are grateful to donors who believe that generosity creates transformative opportunities, as well as to the grant recipients whose passionate energy and dedication enrich our community every day.

Fostering Philanthropic Aspirations

Your community foundation is a user-friendly resource for you to explore your charitable passions, bring them into focus, and create gifts that will positively impact your community...forever! And the best part? It's really easy!

You pick your interests. We help you design a plan.

You decide who will benefit. You may have specific interests or simply want to benefit the community in general. We will help you structure gifts that accomplish your desires.

You decide what to give: cash, life insurance, stock, interest in an IRA, or other assets...or combinations of assets, including estate gifts.

You decide when to give. Do you want to donate to or initiate a fund today, or defer your gift through a bequest? You can do either, or both. Also, you can decide whether you wish to remain anonymous or be publicly acknowledged, and if/when you might want that information shared.

You decide the type of gift that suits your desires:

Unrestricted funds are used to address ever-changing needs and opportunities within the community, allowing maximum resources and flexibility for CFWC grantmaking.

Designated funds assure annual support for agencies named by the fund's founding contributor.

Donor-advised funds allow founding contributors to make annual grant recommendations to the CFWC for approval. By law, recommendations are not binding, but CFWC takes them seriously and approves grants to local nonprofits that meet charitable and financial standards.

Field of Interest Funds allow donors to select areas of interest (e.g. arts, education, recreation, etc.) without designations to specific entities, allowing CFWC to address grant requests received in these broader areas.

Agency Funds help ensure annual support for our nonprofits' programming and services. Supporters may create or contribute gifts at any time and in any amount, including memorials and bequests.

Special Project Funds support for non-permanent or short-term nonprofit initiatives that benefit the community. These funds are not placed into the endowment/investment portfolio.

Scholarship Funds may be created so that you participate in the selection process or leave recommendations up to CFWC.

Because the Community Foundation of White County is a public charity, donors receive the maximum deductions allowed by law. And remember – you may donate to any fund with any amount at any time.

Your gifts help strengthen and positively transform our community!
